

Academic Cooperative Agreement between
Nha Trang University and Pukyong National University

Nha Trang University (NTU), Nha Trang city, Vietnam, and Pukyong National University are interested in drawing up a general collaborative agreement. The agreement, therefore, is made as a gesture of goodwill between the two universities and mutual benefit through the cooperative effort in the following areas:

1. Exchange of faculty members
2. Student exchange for research and study
3. Exchange of academic materials and other information
4. Joint research activities
5. Participation and co-organization in seminars/ workshops and academic meetings
6. Special short-term academic programs
7. Staff development

This agreement shall be valid for five (5) years from the date of signing. Revision or renewal of this cooperative link is subject to mutual consent of both parties.

It is expected that this agreement will lead to other more specific collaborative agreements between the two universities. Details of the implementation of any particular activities resulting from this agreement shall be negotiated between the two universities as such specific cases arise.

Either party may terminate the agreement by written notification signed by the appropriate official of the party initiating the notice. Such notification must be received by the other party at least six months prior to the effective date of termination.

This agreement serves as the intention of both parties to work together to promote academic and educational linkage. It does not have any legal binding on the part of the universities involved.

The following individuals will serve as the designated contact persons responsible for the development and implementation of this agreement.
